Section 11(6) of the Firearms Act.

Dover Clay Pigeon Club holds an exemption granted by the the Chief Constable of Kent under section 11(6) of the Firearms Act 1968. This allows non-certificate holders to use a shotgun on Club ground for shooting at artificial targets. Prohibited persons as defined by Section 21 of the Firearms Act 1968 must not be permitted to be in possession of guns or ammunition.

Section 21

It is an offence for someone who is prohibited by Section 21 of the Firearms Act 1968 to have a firearm or ammunition in his or her possession at any time.

Section 21 applies to anybody who has been sentenced to imprisonment or to youth custody or detention in a young offenders' institution for three months or more. The period for which they are prohibited depends on the length of their sentence, if the sentence was longer than three years the prohibition is for life. If the sentence was three months or more but less than three years, the prohibition lasts for five years from the date of their release. It is an offence for a person to transfer, let or hire, give or lend a firearm or ammunition to someone whom he/she knows has reasonable grounds for believing to be prohibited by Section 21.
